Faubus Offers Building Plan, No New Taxes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus today proposed a $76 million dollar state building program without any new taxes.

It includes $42 million for the University of Arkansas and state colleges.

Faubus outlined his proposal to a joint session of the Arkansas General Assembly at which he presented his plan to the General Assembly.

The program would call for a $60 million bond issue. The colleges' construction funds would come from this.

A total of $13 million would come from surplus revenue and increased collections from use tax to be brought about by removal of exemptions to this tax, Faubus said. The other $3 million would come from various other funds.

Under his bond proposal, no bonds would be sold unless revenues showed increases over the previous year. The bond issue would be set up over a four-year period, with the first $20 million to be issued this July 1.

Faubus said he would sign bills to tighten up on use tax exemptions and veto companion measures to extend those exemptions to the sales tax.

Under Faubus' proposal, the State Hospital would get $12 million and the Children's Colony $4 million.

Faubus' plan is a substitute for a $52 million bond issue proposal which would have financed construction at the University, state colleges, State Hospital and Children's Colony. This proposal, to have been financed by a soft drink tax, was withdrawn when its defeat became obvious.

The governor's proposal also includes $1.6 million for construction of a new Revenue Department building, $2.9 million for improvements to state parks, and $1.5 million for the blind and deaf schools.

He also included funds for repairs and improvements at other state institutions.

A breakdown of the other proposed funds:

McRae Negro Tuberculosis Sanatorium $50,000; State Penitentiary $350,000; White Girls Industrial School $400,000; Boys Training School $250,000; Negro Boys and Girls Training School $100,000; new vocational school at location to be announced $500,000; Library Commission $500,000; State Livestock Show $500,000; Repairs and improvements to Capitol $250,000; secretary of state for Capitol work $135,000; new Capitol Grounds Commission $250,000; Booneville Tuberculosis Sanatorium $500,000; National Guard armories $300,000; municipalities $400,000; Arkansas Post park $65,000; State archives $25,000; District and county livestock shows $338,000; opening additional beds at the University of Arkansas Medical Center $400,000 a year; Publicity and Parks Commission $15,000.

Faubus said the items for the Booneville Sanatorium, National Guard armories, Publicity and Parks Commission, State Hospital and municipalities would not be included in the $76 million program but would come from funds on hand but not yet expended.

Eastern Airlines Suspend Flights

MEMPHIS (AP)—Eastern Airlines suspended operations here today because of a nationwide strike of flight engineers.

The shutdown cancels four Eastern flights originating in Memphis — three to Atlanta and one to Miami. Thirty persons employed by the company here will be furloughed.

American Airlines laid off 120 employees here and cancelled 16 flights in and out of Memphis.

Use of Force in Congo Gets UN Approval

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

The Soviets bowed to the pressure of Asian and African opinion today and permitted. Security Council approval of a resolution authorizing the United Nations to use force if necessary to prevent civil war in the Congo.

Even before the resolution's adoption one of its chief targets — Katanga — President Moise Tshombe — had rejected a key provision calling for withdrawal from the Congo of all Belgian military and political advisers. They supply the working brains of Tshombe's provincial army and administration.

The vote on the resolution, which was sponsored by the council's three Asian-African members was 9-0, with the United States on the winning side. Despite its bitter opposition to the U.N. operation in the Congo and Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld's direction of it, the Soviet Union abstained, apparently unwilling to incur the anger of the uncommitted Asian and African nations by a veto. France also abstained.

Shortly before the vote on the Asian-African peace plan, the council smashed down, 8-1, a Soviet resolution calling for an end to the U.N. operation in the Congo within a month and for the dismissal of Hammarskjöld.

Shortly before 4 a.m. the 11-nation body rejected an Asian-African resolution condemning atrocities and assassinations in the Congo. That resolution was prompted by the announcement Monday that six associates of slain Congolese leader Patrice Lumumba had been executed in South Kasai Province after deportation from Leopoldville by Premier Joseph Ileo's government.

The resolution failed to get the seven votes necessary for adoption after the Soviet Union, with its 93rd and 94th vetoes, killed two U.S. amendments aimed to keep Leopoldville, Katanga and South Kasai from being singled out as atrocity centers while Stanleyville, the seat of the pro-Communist Lumumbist regime, went unmentioned.

The final vote was 6-0 for the resolution, with the United States, Britain, Nationalist China, France and Turkey abstaining.

Plan to Apply in Present Air Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A mutual aid strike plan set up by the airlines apparently will apply in the present flight engineers strike, industry sources said today.

Ten of the country's 12 trunk carrier lines, including all the lines on strike except Western, are members of the fund.

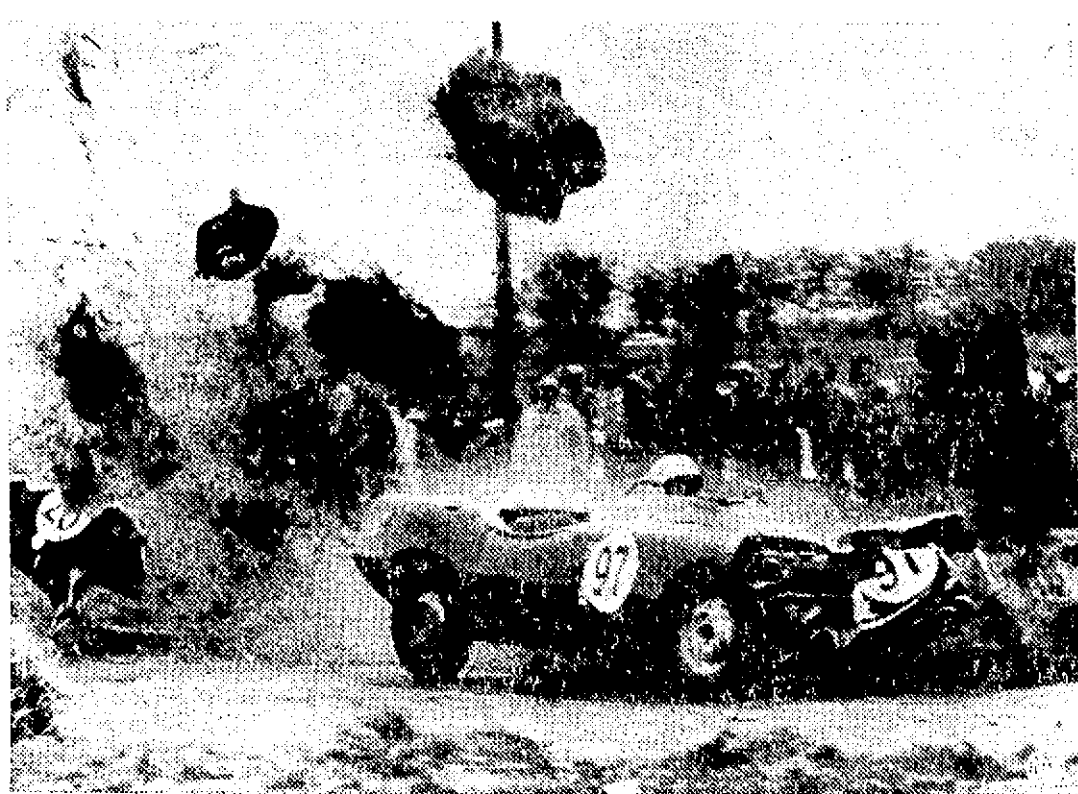

When there are strikes, the plan operates in this manner: Airlines not involved in the strike compensate struck airlines for any financial benefits received from extra traffic.

Thus, if three airlines operate in a certain area and two of them are struck, the third airline pays over to the other two any extra profits it receives while the walk-out is in progress.

The payments are figured out on the basis of what percentage of business each of the lines normally has in the area. If the line still operating is put to expense in using extra equipment during the strike, this expense can be deducted before the payments are made.

Airlines belonging to the strike fund are American, Braniff, Capital, Continental, Eastern, National, Northwest, Pan American Trans World and United.

Among the trunk carrier lines, only Delta and Northeast are not members.

Pilkinton Is Named City Attorney

The City Board of Directors yesterday approved the appointment of James H. Pilkinton as city attorney; got its first report on the 1960 audit; and passed an ordinance concerning the election of municipal judge in accordance with recently passed Legislative Act 39.

Mike Kelly, Mitchell LaGrone, A. J. Rhodes, Mrs. Lamar Cox and Bill Roston were named to the Parks and Recreation Commission.

The group decided to continue the present policy of sending fire equipment outside the city limits if it can be spared.

No action was taken on a request by A. Z. Turner to build a filling station and grocery store on S. Main near the Hempstead County Hospital. The permit request had been denied by the City Planning Board.

The Water and Light Plant will install new street markers at all intersections of the city.

Meetings of the Board were set for 2:30 p.m. the first and third Mondays of each month.

Mrs. Cora Staggs, 85, Succumbs in Local Hospital

Mrs. Cora Staggs, aged 85, long-time resident of Hope, died Monday in a local hospital.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John Hatley of Hope and a sister, Mrs. H. C. Stuart of Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Herndon-Cornelius Chapel by Dr. John McClanahan and Dr. L. T. Lawrence with burial in Shaver Springs Cemetery.

Autopsy Shows Girl Not Raped

MEMPHIS (AP)—An autopsy report on a 13-year-old Mississippi girl shows she was not raped before she died under a killer's slashing knife.

A special investigator for the district attorney general said the report also was direct proof that Freddie Green, 13, lied when he said he had had previous relations with Sharon Vaiden.

Sharon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Vaiden of near Olive Branch, Miss., was stabbed 32 times when she went to a restaurant in a supermarket basement last Saturday night while her mother shopped.

Green, a Negro porter at the store, was arraigned Monday on charges of murder and murder in the perpetration of rape. A plea of innocent was entered—required in any charge that carries a possible death penalty.

Student Pilot Steals Plane, Dies in Crash

SPRINGDALE, Ark. (AP)—A 23-year-old student pilot flying a stolen airplane was killed today when the craft crashed during bad weather near here.

Sheriff Hollis Spencer said Howell Oliver, an employee of a Rogers construction company, had taken off from the Rogers airport in a light plane owned by Sam Walton. He filed a flight plan by radio with the Fayetteville airport, giving the name of Farrington.

The plane apparently crashed a few minutes after his last radio contact with Fayetteville at 1:17 a.m.

The Federal Aviation Authority said flying conditions were poor at the time, with icing conditions and low visibility. The Fayetteville airport was closed early this morning.

Oliver had filed his flight plan for Dallas. A search began when he failed to make a scheduled check with McAlester, Okla.

Residents of the Frank Hartman farm near Lake Elmador, four miles west of here had discovered the crashed plane and notified authorities.

Spencer said Oliver held a student pilot's license.

UN Issues Hands Off Whites Plea

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The United Nations issued a hands-off-Whites appeal to the rulers of the Congo's pro-Lumumbist territories today.

The denunciation and death of six Lumumbist politicians, closely paralleling the fate of ex-premier Patrice Lumumba, produced anxiety here that Lumumbist leaders of Oriental and Kivu provinces may unleash bloodbath reprisals against Europeans.

"We have very grave fears for those people in Stanleyville," a U.N. spokesman told a news conference.

The antiviolenence warning was sent by Rajeshwar Dayal, the U.N.'s Congo mission chief, to Lumumbist leaders in Stanleyville, the seat of Antoine Gizenga's rebel regime.

The note urged that all Europeans and anti-Lumumbist Congolese prisoners be "treated with humanity and justice."

About 1,000 Europeans are now in Stanleyville and the Lumumbist authorities refuse to let them leave. About 300 Congolese political prisoners are in Stanleyville jails.

U.S. Will Attempt to Send Man Into Space Within Three Months

JFK Hands Congress 16 Priority Bills

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today gave Democratic congressional leaders a list of 16 bills he wants to have priority in the legislative program. It is topped by extension of unemployment compensation.

The leaders said they promised the President's speedy action.

"I think now that we are going to have full steam ahead," House Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., told reporters after the breakfast meeting of House and Senate leaders at the White House.

The top measure on Kennedy's program is already getting consideration in the House Ways and Means Committee. This bill would extend unemployment compensation benefits for idle men whose jobless pay had expired by last October.

The next three items among the President's proposals are additional federal aid to the dependent children of unemployed fathers, improvements in Social Security benefits and a $300-million bill for aid in redeveloping depressed areas.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said of matching importance will be a general farm message, proposed changes in former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's budget, and water and natural resources legislation.

The other bills on the 16-point list were:

The support and control program for feed grains, increasing the $1 minimum wage, federal aid to education, health care for the aged under Social Security, aid for college education, aid for medical education and research, federal support for expansion of community health facilities, extension of the Government Reorganization Act, ratification of U.S. affiliation with the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, creation of 50 new federal judgeships, establishment of an office of international travel and easing of restrictions on trade with Iron Curtain countries.

The denunciation and death of six Lumumbist politicians, closely paralleling the fate of ex-premier Patrice Lumumba, produced anxiety here that Lumumbist leaders of Oriental and Kivu provinces may unleash bloodbath reprisals against Europeans.

Nashville Youth Killed in Japan

TOKYO (AP)—The U.S. Army announced today that PFC Michael L. Harrison, 18, of Nashville, Ark., was killed in a motorcycle accident Feb. 18.

Harrison's motorcycle skidded on an icy road north of Chitose City, veered into the opposite lane and was hit by a Japanese military truck, the Army said.

Harrison's mother is Mrs. Elizabeth Laura Williams of Nashville.

More Street, Road Money Bill Passes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Senate has approved administration measures to give counties and cities more road and street money.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who proposed the two bills passed Monday, said normal increase in revenue will take care of the $750,000 increase in the counties' street turnback allocations.

The Arkansas House Monday delayed action on a bill to make it illegal for trucks to use a fifth wheel to evade the state's $4,500-pound truck weight limit.

The House passed a bill to relieve railroads of some accident liabilities established by law specifically for railroads.

Aside from those matters, little significant action was taken Monday. The lawmakers' minds were obviously on a joint-session speech by Gov. Orval E. Faubus today in which he was expected to discuss teacher retirement and an institutional building program.

Faubus met Monday with legislators in an effort to compromise on the controversial teacher retirement matter, but negotiations broke down with the only concession granted by the governor a promise to add $600,000 to the program to take care of already retired teachers.

Faubus is backing a bill to set the state's teacher retirement contribution at 5 per cent of teacher salary. A number of legislators are backing an Arkansas Education Association-approved bill to make the state pay 9.72 per cent.

Faubus said after the fruitless meeting Monday that he would not waver on his percentage offer.

The House met today at 10 a.m. and the Senate at 10:45. The joint session was due at 11.

The two street and road bills passed Monday by the Senate specify (1) that the Highway Commission spend $7.5 million on federal aid secondary roads within a two-year period, and (2) cities and towns get at least $750,000 more than they have been receiving in street turnback money for each year of the two-year period.

At least $100,000 would be spent in each county under the first provision.

Faubus said the Arkansas County Judges Association and the Success Today of Atlas Test Paves the Way

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The United States today selected three astronauts to begin final training for a manned rocket flight expected in two or three months.

The three are John Glenn, Virgil Grissom and Alan Shepard.

Robert Gilruth, Mercury project director, announced the selection at a news conference after the successful firing of a space capsule of the type to be used in manned flight.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An unmanned space capsule survived in apparently excellent condition today in a test of the worst that might happen as an astronaut returns from space.

The spacecraft, differing only in equipment from the one an American astronaut is expected to ride late this year, sped upward at 9:10 a.m. EST from the missile test center, on the nose of a huge Atlas missile.

Forty-three minutes later it was fished from the sea about 400 miles northeast of Puerto Rico and 1,425 miles from the launching pad.

Just before noon Robert Gilruth, project manager for the man-in-space program, told newsmen that reports from the recovery ship indicated that the capsule came through in excellent shape.

"This test gives us a new confidence in the system," Gilruth said, "but I must caution that several critical flight tests remain before we can send a man into orbit."

The capsule sped right on target, landed 3 miles from the nearest recovery ships and was quickly spotted by an airplane crew.

The LSD (landing ship dock) Donner hoisted the spacecraft aboard.

There was no immediate word here on what damage, if any, had been done to the capsule as it landed in the Atlantic Ocean.

The aim of the test was to determine what happens when such a spacecraft returns through the atmosphere under the worst possible conditions.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said that the Atlas launcher and the spacecraft itself performed satisfactorily.

If the capsule survived with little effects, it will be a tremendous boost to this nation's hope of sending an astronaut into orbit late this year.

The floating capsule was sighted at 9:32 a. m. and the recovery, by helicopter, was made 21 minutes later.

The bell-shaped capsule was about the Donner at 10:09 a.m. NASA announced 25 minutes after launching.

Court Says Family Can Sue Police

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court, interpreting a 90-year-old statute enacted as a weapon against the Ku Klux Klan, held today a Chicago family can sue city police in federal court for entering their apartment without a warrant and pushing them around.

The high court's unanimous ruling on the Civil Rights Act of 1871 overturned lower courts which had held that James Monroe and his family could only sue in state courts.

The city itself cannot be sued under the ruling. Eight of the justices agreed on that. Dissenting on this point, Justice Frankfurter said he felt the city as well as the police officers could be sued under the federal statute.

Among other earlier actions of the day, the high court:

Upheld in a New York District Court order stripping U.S. citizenship from racketeer Frank Costello. The action opens the way for possible deportation proceedings against the elderly gambler who was brought to this country from Sicily as a child. Costello is now serving time in Atlanta on conviction of income tax evasion.

Reinstated, on an FBI decision, an indictment charging Dave Beck, former Teamsters Union president, violated the Taft-Hartley act by accepting a $200,000 loan from trucking interests. The indictment also named Joe Francantoni, the Frankfort Trailer Co., J. Edgar Seymour, Associated Transport, Inc., and the Brown Equipment and Manufacturing Co.

Threw out on a unanimous decision an $822,073 award won by the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association because it was soon after the railroad had conducted a 24 eastern railroads and Carl Byoir Associates Inc., a public relations firm. The truckers contended the railroad had conducted a campaign of harassment against the highway carriers in violation of antitrust laws. The high court held antitrust laws were not violated.

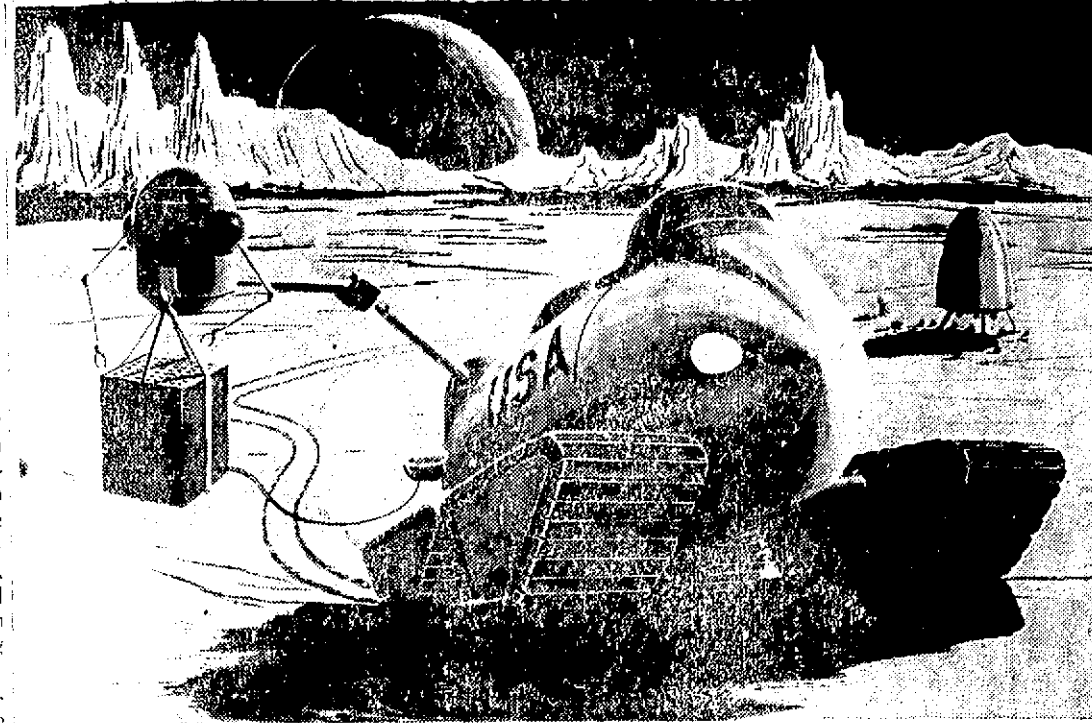

The decision in the case of the Chicago family and the old civil rights statute was written by Justice Douglas.

In the case, James Monroe, his wife, and their six children filed suit in U. S. District Court in Chicago for damages from the city and 13 policemen.

They complained the police broke into the Monroe apartment at 5:45 a.m. on Oct. 29, 1958, ransacked closets and clothing and ripped open mattresses; bit, kicked and shoved members of the family.

Monroe was taken to police headquarters, put in limps, questioned about a murder, denied permission to call a lawyer, and after 13 hours was released without a charge being made against him.

The District Court, and later the U. S. Circuit Court in Chicago, ruled the family had no remedy under the Civil Rights Act. The LUNAR LOCOMOTION—Reasoning that individual space suits for moon explorers may be impractical, both physically and psychologically, engineers at American Machine and Foundry Co. have come up with this idea. The machine could be moved by a variety of methods, including tank treads (shown), pneumatic rollers or paddle wheels. A man in capsule, connected to the machine by an "umbilical" cord, would be able to perform numerous work functions, yet be brought quickly back to the machine in case of trouble.

Circuit Court said the family was not without a remedy in state courts.

Appealing to the high tribunal, the family contended their rights to due process of law were violated and they had a case for damages under the Civil Rights Act.

Counsel for Chicago argued the due process clause of the 14th Amendment and the Civil Rights Act were directed against state action aimed at depriving persons of their civil rights.

The acts complained of by the Monroe family, the counsel said, were committed without state or city authority and were in direct contravention of all state laws and city ordinances.

The city contended the acts of the policemen constituted a series of private wrongs, for which redress could be sought under state law but not under the Civil Rights Act.

Reds Fumble in Dealings With Congo

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

The Soviet Union's maneuver for veto power over the United Nations General Assembly appears to have been a serious mistake. Yet her economic war against the West goes ahead unchecked and is even carried forward by others.

Many years ago the international Communists adopted a fundamental belief that the road to world conquest would wind through the ruins of the Western economic system.

At a postwar meeting in China, a definite program was adopted for cutting Europe off from its traditional sources of raw materials in Asia and Africa and thus softening the colonial powers for the final coup.

It was decided to ride the horse of rising nationalism in these areas, even when it advanced beyond the hope of immediate political advantage for communism. A wedge between an underdeveloped nation and an industrial nation, driven by anyone was a feather in the Communist hat.

The Soviet Union fumbled in her political approach to the Congo. But economically the situation has produced a serious condition and the fall of a government in Belgium to balance initial Communist slippage.

The latest killings of political prisoners, by elements through which the West hoped to restore some order, again divide the Soviet's opponents in the United Nations and stir African sympathy for the pro-Communists.

Morocco is turning toward political and economic ties with other Northern and Western African.

Morocco is turning toward political and economic ties with other

Under the accompanying scholarship program, 306 Arkansas pupils would get scholarships estimated at a total of $214,200 in fiscal 1962, which begins next July.

The number would be increased to 2,292 and the amount to $1,604,400 in fiscal 1966, beginning July 1, 1965.

Jobless Bill Goes Before Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy submitted to Congress today an administration bill to pump out hundreds of millions of dollars to help areas of severe unemployment get back on their feet.

The President already had recommended that Congress act in this field. Today he sent along to House Speaker Sam Rayburn a bill putting the program in specific terms.

Among other things, it would set up a $300-million revolving fund for loans to help local communities expand industries to attract new ones and would provide $75 million in grants to help supply public facilities, such as roads, water and utilities needed by industry.

northern and western African states as against her long association with France.

Native forces are working hard to diminish British ties with new nations which are taking various steps toward independence this year. In some areas the forces of cooperation are being seriously challenged by other native forces determined merely to throw out the whites, as in the Congo.

There is a possibility that the new Republic of South Africa will be blackballed from the Commonwealth, creating a serious situation for vast British commercial interests there.

A war between Indonesia and the Netherlands over West New Guinea is always possible.

The Soviet Union, by dragging the rebellious Algerian provisional government into a political position regarding the Congo, has added another bit to the difficulties of negotiations which the Western world has hoped would bind up the French-Algerian wounds.

Many of these situations are little influenced by the Communists. It's just that the Reds have a policy into which they fit, as in Cuba. The showdown between the Communists and the weak new governments can come later.

Paisley Garden Club Meets

On Friday, Feb. 17 the Paisley Daffodil Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. Tom Purvis with Mrs. Creighton Middlebrooks as co-hostess. Branches of japa-panic gave the home a spring like atmosphere.

"St. Patrick's Day" was the type of arrangements brought by the club members. Mrs. Lloyd Leverett and Mrs. Harold Brents. For the program Mrs. Leverett and Mrs. George Prazier discussed arrangements for the spring flower show. Preliminary plans were made for the show, and the club decided to plant small items in the flower boxes at Jones Field House.

During the refreshment hour dessert, nuts, and coffee were served to 17.

Mrs. Milford Warren Entertains Friendship Sewing Circle

Mrs. Milford Warren was hostess for a meeting of the Friendship Sewing Circle Saturday evening, February 18. Co-hostess Miss Linda Warren gave the devotion and Mrs. Hene Webb offered prayer.

The group made planters to resemble logs during the meeting. One new member, Mrs. Willie Beard, was welcomed to the club. Cookies and coffee were served to 13, including two guests, Mrs. Hershel Johnson and little Miss Linda Faght.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Willie Beard on March 18.

DOROTHY DIX

When Speech Is Silver and Silence Golden

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKIN

Dear Helen:

I am married six years and have a little boy two and a half years old. I work three nights a week in a large discount store where there are many salesmen, one of whom I thought was especially nice until recently.

When things are slow I often tell of things my son does to get me upset. He's cute but a little wild. This salesman has one daughter with another child coming. He brags about his family and shows pictures of them around. He takes the attitude that I don't love my son. That hurts. I would die for my baby. Should I avoid talking to this salesman — Mrs. L. B.

Dear Mrs. L. B.: You're making a mountain out of a molehill. Ease off on the chummy talks. You're married; this salesman is married. Be pleasant but reserved.

You don't mention your husband. If he can support you and your little boy, your place is at home with them. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for "Key-stones of the Home."

Dear Helen:

I am 12 and have got a girl. Everything goes along fine until her six-year old brother starts telling her lies, such as that I tell and broke her hip. She is hospitalized in Fayetteville.

Started Marriage on Right Track

LOS ALAMITOS, Calif. (AP) — Theodore McDonald and Carole Francis figure they started their marriage on the right track.

The Rev. H. Carl Roessler officiated at their wedding Saturday in the converted bar of the clubhouse at the Los Alamitos Race Track.

Roessler is pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran church. During construction of a nearby church building, his congregation meets in a chapel that was once a clubhouse bar at Los Alamitos.

For two and a half years I've been going with a boy whom I love dearly. Once I went with a boy behind his back. He never found out. We quarrel a lot. Now he has told me he is going in the Navy just to spite me. Should I tell him about the other boy? — B. H., The Troubled One

Dear B. H.: If you love this boy and he you, why complicate matters by telling of a past mistake? Better to talk about your future — together.

Car Blast Is Fatal to Arkansan

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Thomas O. Williams, 60, Harrison, Ark., was killed Sunday by an explosion that tore his car apart in a parking lot at a suburban shopping center.

"From all indications he committed suicide," said Police Capt. George Owen, "but we won't know until further investigation."

Williams was a contractor. His wife, Fay, 43, told police they came to this area last week on business. She was in their motel room.

Police said Williams apparently held the explosive charge in his lap. A piece of wire, of a type commonly used to detonate dynamite, was found in his right hand.

Pieces of the car were strewn in a 200-foot radius. No other damage resulted.

mission which would come to Laos to establish that the country threatens no one and aspires only to peace," the king said, addressing Boun Oum, his cabinet ministers and foreign diplomats gathered at his palace.

The U.S. State Department welcomed the monarch's declaration, hailed his ideas as "constructive and promising" and said it would respect his wishes.

More Street,

Arkansas Municipal League had withdrawn other demands for more road and street aid because of the compromise plan. Paulus announced the compromise last week after a meeting with city-county forces.

The two bills now go to the House.

The Senate passed 27-1 a bill providing establishment of detached firehouse windows by banks in cities where they have their main office. Defeated in the Senate was a bill to tighten restrictions on automobile graveyards. The matter was left open for later consideration.

A parliamentary dispute held up the House's decision to delay a vote on the truck weight limit law. The bill was approved last week 21-10, but 31 votes are needed for passage.

Some legislators charge truckers are using the fifth wheel to shade the weight in the truck forward and backward, depending on which set of wheels are being weighed.

The House adopted resolutions to set up an inspection tour of the state hospital this week and to ask the Game and Fish Commission to require all fishermen to buy a $2.50 license. Bank fishermen using live bait do not need a license now.

Members of both houses were busy introducing bills Monday. The Senate got four related bills designed to permit state and local government to be carried on in event of an enemy attack.

One deals with legislative succession, a second with executive and judicial succession, a third with possible removal of the capital from Little Rock and the fourth with emergency measures for political subdivisions.

Also in the Senate, Sen. Q. Byrum Hest of Hot Springs submitted a bill to allow first or second class cities to vote even though the county in which they are located has voted dry. His bill also would modify local option liquor election laws.

Sen. J. Lee Bearden of Leachville introduced a bill to create a State Capitol Grounds Commission with authority to acquire land and buildings adjacent to the present grounds and issue revenue bonds to buy land and construct new buildings.

Sen. Robert Harvey of Swift introduced a home rule constitutional amendment to allow cities to levy taxes without regard to constitutional ceiling.

Gov. Rep. Eugene Canada introduced a bill in the House to reorganize the state Teacher Retirement System's Board of Trustees to prevent the board from perpetuating itself.

Teachers would vote on the board members. Now they are elected by the board. Nomination would be by petition.

Mississippi Rep. Kenneth Siler introduced a bill to require lobbyists to register and state what kind of legislation they will work for or against.

Yell Rep. Boss Mitchell put in a bill to set a 6 1/2-cent per gallon tax on any liquefied petroleum gas used as a motor fuel.

Ouachita Rep. David Pryor filed a resolution which would call on the Legislative Council to introduce a bill to require make a study of county government and file a report with the next legislature.

Snow, Rain Strikes Much of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The season's most severe snowstorm hit the plains of west Texas and southeast New Mexico Monday, isolating some communities and causing widespread traffic jams.

Flood waters from swollen rivers and streams menaced areas in Iowa, Mississippi, Pennsylvania, Alabama, Virginia, Maryland and Florida.

The Southwest snowstorm erupted in freezing temperatures as rain splashed across most of Texas eastward in warm air to the Atlantic Coast.

In Texas, up to 20 inches of snow fell in the small town of Claude, near Lovelland, where the snow depth was 19 inches. Scores of children were rescued from seven school buses which stalled in the Lovelland area.

Lubbock, a city of 123,000, was virtually paralyzed by a foot of snow and Lovington, N. M., was stranded by a 16-inch fall.

Visibility was reported near zero during the height of the storm.

Snow mixed with rain fell during the morning in Lubbock, with temperatures at freezing. Fifty students and 15 teachers were forced to spend the night in a school in nearby Woolfirth. Roads were virtually impassable.

National guardsmen were called to assist highway crews in clearing roads in the storm belt. Thousands of cars were abandoned. Road crews, driving tractors and plows, rescued many motorists. Texas troopers rescued a busload of school children in the Lubbock area and took them to a church. Their parents, getting through the heavy snow-on-tractors, took them home.

Two traffic deaths in the Lubbock area were blamed on the storm.

Other heavy snowfalls in Texas included 15 inches in Plains, 14 in Denver City and 10 in Morton. In Hobbs, N.M., the fall measured 9 inches.

Early thaws of heavy snows and recent heavy rains overflowed many streams in the East, South and Midwest.

The swollen Allegheny River, carrying a 15-mile-long ice gorge, crested well below flood stage in Pittsburgh Monday night. The gorge appeared to be thinning out as it moved downstream. The Allegheny reached the 21.5-foot level and then began falling. Flood work for or against.

Yell Rep. Boss Mitchell put in a bill to set a 6 1/2-cent per gallon tax on any liquefied petroleum gas used as a motor fuel.

Ouachita Rep. David Pryor filed a resolution which would call on the Legislative Council to introduce a bill to require make a study of county government and file a report with the next legislature.

Use of Force

Ceylon, Liberia and the U.A.R. sponsored the winning plan to head off civil war and the losing proposal to condemn the assassinations, with the backing of 17 other Asian-African countries and Yugoslavia.

The peace plan also calls on all countries to keep military personnel from going to the Congo, provides for an investigation of the killing of Lumumba and envisages the convening of Parliament and the removal of Congolese troops from politics through retraining.

Hammarhjold welcomed the resolution's adoption. He declared it gave "a stronger and clearer framework for United Nations action." He also called for more troops to build up the thinning U.N. Congo force.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin whose own proposal described Hammarhjold as "a participant in and organizer of" Lumumba's murder, explained he did not veto the peace resolution because the Asian-African countries said "in the present circumstances this was the only chance of remedying the situation in the Congo."

U. S. chief delegate Adlai E. Stevenson told the council the Asian-African peace plan "has a sense of urgency and shows a strong desire to meet the present crisis."

The U. N. command in Leopoldville was seeking to avert, by negotiation, a civil war between the Stanleyville regime's military force and the Leopoldville army headed by Maj. Gen. Joseph Mobutu.

Lt. Gen. Sean MacKeown, the stage in Pittsburgh is 25 feet.

Ice jams also threatened flooding on the Des Moines River upstream from Ottumwa, Iowa. Thousands of acres of land were under water in Calhoun and Chickasaw counties in Mississippi, hit by 16 inches of rain in three days.

The lower Potomac River was near flood stage north of Washington, D. C., due to the melting of heavy snow in Virginia and Maryland. Minor overflows were reported on the James River near Richmond. Several streams in Alabama have risen as much as 30 feet in three days.

Rain and storms raked areas in the South Monday night. Small tornadoes damaged a few buildings and uprooted trees in scattered areas of Mississippi and Macomb County, Ala.

The rain belt spread into the Ohio Valley and middle Atlantic Coast states. Heaviest falls were in a narrow band from northern Louisiana northeastward into northern parts of South Carolina, with falls up to two inches.

Fairly mild weather prevailed in most areas. Below freezing marks were reported in the central Plains, the middle and upper Mississippi Valley, the Great Lakes region and eastward through northern Pennsylvania and New England.

Retires From the Service

Lt. Col. D. A. Washburn

LAURENCE G. HONSTON FIELD, BEDFORD, MASS. — Lt. Col. David A. Washburn, USAF, 55, brother-in-law of Mrs. Harry Hawthorne, Hope, Arkansas, and son-in-law of Mrs. David A. Snell, Emmet, was recently honored at a retirement ceremony after completing 34 years of active military service, and awarded the Air Force Commendation Ribbon at L. G. Honstons Field, Bedford, Mass. The Colonel will continue his work on electronic systems as civilian chief of civil engineering for the Electromagnetic Intelligence System Program Office, Bedford, Mass.

Irish commander of the U. N. military force, arranged a meeting today with Mobutu at or near Bumba, the Congo river town where Mobutu has massed about 1,200 troops for an invasion of Oriental Province, the Lumumbist faction's stronghold.

Success Today

similar flight last July.

Both had to perform almost flawlessly. Otherwise, the United States probably will forfeit its chance—already admittedly slim—to send a man into orbit late this year.

A triple tail of fire spurted from the three big engines as the Atlas shot into a clear sky. Forty seconds after lift-off the 77-foot rocket curved toward the southeast and sped from sight.

The results of today's flight are important to a plan to hurl an American astronaut on a rocket flight within two or three months. The smaller Redstone rocket will be used for that test.

All seven U. S. astronauts were on hand for the tests. Two of them—Leroy Cooper and Walter Schirra—struck overhead in a F106 jet when the missile was launched. Virgil Grissom was at a tracking station in Bermuda. The other four were at the Cape.

The Atlas mission was to push the space chamber to an altitude of 115 miles, then send it back into the earth's atmosphere at a speed of 13,600 miles an hour.

The program for the spacecraft itself: to slam back through the "heat barrier" of the atmosphere with the force of a truck hitting a brick wall and parachute into the Atlantic about 400 miles northeast of Puerto Rico, approximately 1400 miles southeast of Cape Canaveral.

The jarring trip was to take 18 minutes. Ships, planes and helicopters waited in the intended impact area to attempt recovery.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the purpose of the flight was "to qualify the design and structure of the capsule under the worst possible re-entry conditions, far more severe than could be expected on a normal orbit flight and re-entry."

"The spacecraft," NASA said, "will be buffeted, scorched and squeezed aerodynamically as never before, and hopefully never again."

"To do this the engineers have picked flight curves which duplicate the most severe re-entry path the spacecraft could take after an emergency short on an orbital flight."

Glenn, 39, of New Concord, Ohio, is a lieutenant colonel in the Marine Corps. He and his wife, Anna, have two children, John David, 14, and Carolyn Ann, 13.

Grissom, 34, of Mitchell, Ind., is a captain in the Air Force. He and his wife, Betty, have two sons, Scott 11 and Mark 7.

Shepard, 37, of East Derry, N.H., is a commander in the Navy. He and his wife, Louise, have two daughters, Juliana, 9, and Laura, 13.

"All seven of the astronauts will be eligible for later flights," Gilruth said.

The other four space candidates are Gordon Cooper, Walker Schirra, Donald Slayton and Scott Carpenter.

"In connection with the successful and significant shot today," Gilruth said, "I would like to announce that later in the program there will be flights of the Mercury space craft which will include manned missions."

"Astronauts Glenn, Grissom and Shepard have been selected to begin concentrated training with the space craft for the first mission. The specific pilots to make each flight will be named just before the flight."

Gilruth said the selection was based on a large amount of technical and medical information gathered during the training of the seven astronauts which began two years ago.

He said that the data was evaluated by the NASA space task group and that he as the project director had made the selection of the three.

Stock Market Churning Irregularly

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market churned irregularly in heavy trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged at 236.80 with Industrials up .10, and both rails and utilities unchanged.

The AP average failed to make progress beyond its latest historic closing high made Monday. A considerable amount of profit taking and switching was in evidence.

Most key stocks changed very narrowly.

The tendency was slightly higher among steels and motors. Airlines, lower at the start, steadied as they continued to absorb news of the strike against major airlines. Aircraft missiles and electronics were a bit on the upside.

Rails, utilities, nonferrous metals, oils and tobaccos were mixed. Chemicals and electrical equipments were slightly lower.

The Dow Jones Industrial average at noon was up .23 at 653.88.

Ohio State Is Still Best in the Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Ohio State basketball team had its biggest scare of the season last Saturday night. Playing Iowa in Iowa City, the undefeated Buckeyes fell ten points behind at halftime and still trailed by seven points with minutes remaining. Then the Buckeyes slammed in ten straight points—the last two goals on steals—and squeezed out a 62-61 victory.

This great comeback for victory No. 20 gave Ohio State the No. 1 position in The Associated Press basketball poll for the 11th straight week.

St. Bonaventure, with a 20-1 season mark, also was a unanimous choice of the special panel of sports writers and broadcasters for the runnerup spot, getting 30 votes.

The remainder of the top ten involved some brisk scrambling, although the shakeup involved the same teams which placed last week. There wasn't a single newcomer.

- The top ten with first place votes in parentheses:
- 1. Ohio State (36) 360
 - 2. St. Bonaventure 324
 - 3. Cincinnati 254
 - 4. Bradley 191
 - 5. Iowa 153
 - 6. Duke 150
 - 7. North Carolina 144
 - 8. Kansas State 118
 - 9. West Virginia 104
 - 10. Southern California 72
- Others receiving votes: St. John's, Kansas, Utah, Purdue, U.C.L.A., Louisville, Mississippi State, Vanderbilt, Wake Forest, Memphis State, Kentucky, St. Joseph's, Drake, Dayton.

Amateur Meet to Original Site

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1961 U.S. Open Golf Championship will be held at The Country Club in Brookline, Mass., where Francis Ouimet scored his great triumph 50 years before.

The U.S. Golf Association, making the announcement Monday, said the dates will be June 20, 21 and 22.

In 1913 Ouimet, then 20, became the first amateur to win the open. He did it by beating the renowned British professionals, Ted Ray and Harry Vardon, in an 18-hole playoff.

Bids on Nike Bases Near Shreveport

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army Engineers Monday notified Rep Overton Brooks, D-La., that its district office at Little Rock, will call for bids about March 8 for improvement work on two Nike-Hercules sites near Shreveport, La.

Involved are the Bellevue and Stonewall sites which are in the complex protecting Barksdale Air Force Base. The improvement work, Engineers said, would cost under $100,000.

17 Die in Flood

LIMA, Peru (AP) — Dispatches from Madre de Dios in southeast Peru Monday said a flood caused by an overflow of the Chinchazo River caused 17 deaths and injuries to about 100 persons.

The reports said heavy rains not only raised the river but loosed logs and rocks which smashed into huts near the village of Pilcopata, where most of the deaths and injuries occurred.

Rioters to Court

LONDON (AP) — A riot outside the Belgian Embassy by demonstrators protesting the slaying of Patrice Lumumba resulted in the court appearances for 24 persons Monday.

Eleven pleaded guilty to charges ranging from assaulting the police to insulting behavior and were fined.

The other 13 pleaded not guilty and were freed on bail pending trial March 1.

Lance Alworths Have a Son

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Lance Alworth, the University of Arkansas' three-sport star, became a father today. His son's name: Lance Dwight Alworth.

The 6-pound 10-ounce boy was born to Betty Alworth at 2:20 a.m. today in a hospital here. It is the Alworths' first child.

The new father is an all-SWC halfback who also excels at track and baseball.

Benedicto in Blue Barron Feature Tues.

Benedicto, handicap star of the Harkins and Ballard Stable, failed to get into Saturday's featured Inaugural, but is assured of a place in the starting lineup of the $4,200 Blue Barron purse, feature of today's eight-race card at Oaklawn Park.

The speedy son of Fighting Fox and Davelle tops a field of 11 named for the 5½-furlong dash.

Looming as a chief threat to Benedicto are the Idle Hour Farm's Idle Star and Brud, owned by Lillian Bayliff and H.J. Wise.

W.H. Bishop will be represented by an entry composed of Anxious Moment and Sputnik. Others in the field of 4-year-olds and up are L. and P. Wells' Music Maestro, G.M. Holsinger and Doug Davis Jr.'s Ketch Joy, H. Grevan's False Alarm, John T. Sims Jr.'s Fleet Boy and P.T. Adwell's All-rab.

Benedicto is assigned impost of 117 pounds which will include apprentice jockey Larry Larkin. The start will be his first of the year. He won four of his 15 races last year and earned purse money totaling $27,737.

Topweight of 118 pounds will be carried by the 5 year old Idle Star, who has been resting since the Pimlico meeting. He finished second in two events at that track but was a winner at Delaware Park. He will be handled by Bennie Sorensen.

Brud, noted for early speed, scored twice last year. He gets in with only 107 pounds and will be ridden by R.J. Campbell.

Music Maestro, winner of four races in 1960, will be piloted by the veteran Doug Dodson. Five other sprints and two mile and 70-yard races complete the card.

Mrs. Jack S. Carnes' Old Story splashed to an easy 5-length victory in Monday's feature race, the $4,000 Trivista purse. The 4-year-old colt ran the 6 furlongs in 1:13.2 and paid $7.20.

Marion H. Van Berg's He's Somebody rated second and Mrs. A.M. Creech's Greek Challenger was third in the 10-horse field.

Larry Larkin rode Old Story, who took the lead at the first turn. A crowd of 4,798 patrons braved wet, chilly weather and bet $269,641.

To Ask Additions to Military Bldg.

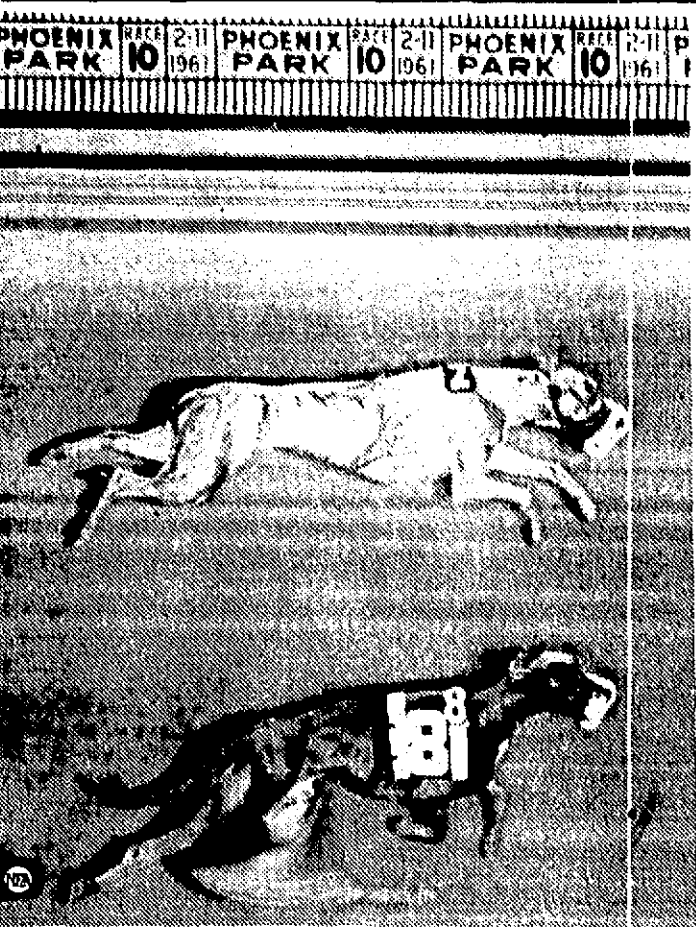

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Defense Department official told the House Armed Services Committee today the Kennedy administration may propose some additions to the $773-million military construction authorization request submitted by the Eisenhower administration.

Thomas D. Morris, assistant secretary of defense for installations and logistics, said there will be no major revision of the items already submitted.

Morris told the committee that 43 per cent of the projects in the military construction bill, on which hearings opened today, are for the missile program, a larger percentage than in any previous year.

Elizabeth, drove with him from Windsor Castle to the school at Cheam, 35 miles west of London.

The prince's parents, Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip, are touring India.

$10,000 INCIT—Competing for the largest purse in international dog racing, O.B.'s All Star held off a stretch drive by Ed's Derringer to win the $50,000 Phoenix Futurity. Riding on the one-inch victory in the Arizona race was the difference between $20,000 for first and $10,000 for place.

Challenges Charge He Was Fired

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spruille Braden has challenged testimony by a former U.S. diplomat that Braden was fired as ambassador to Argentina by former President Harry S. Truman after being accused of helping Latin-American Communists.

Braden, from his home in New York, offered to appear before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, where William D. Pawley testified in closed sessions last September, to deny the charges under oath.

"I would be glad to have the results of the combined testimony of Pawley and myself forwarded to the Department of Justice if, in the judgment of the Senate, such disposition is warranted," Braden said.

Pawley's testimony was released Sunday.

In Bermuda, where he is on vacation, Truman's only comment was "Spruille Braden did a good job."

Braden said instead of being fired, he had been raised by Truman and awarded the Medal of Freedom, the highest U.S. civilian decoration.

Pawley, Miami businessman and former ambassador to Peru and Brazil, said he received an intelligence memorandum prepared by an Army undercover agent, took it to then Atty. Gen. Tom Clark and was summoned next day to the White House to show it to Truman.

At that time in 1947, Pawley was assistant secretary of state for American republic affairs.

In his testimony, Pawley pictured Braden not as a Communist but as a very ambitious man who "became involved in a program which appeared to be helpful to the Communist party in Latin America."

He said that later Braden blocked his appointment to replace Braden as Argentine ambassador and he was sent instead to Brazil.

"Pawley makes only one true statement," replied Braden, "that I blocked his appointment as ambassador to Argentina."

Braden said he had sounded a "long series" of alarms "as to the very dangerous infiltration of communism throughout the American republics," starting as early as 1945.

Wants States to Match School Fund

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., today countered President Kennedy's request for a $5.7-billion aid-to-education program with a demand for legislation tripped of what he called "trills."

Dirksen, the Senate minority leader, called the Kennedy program rather ambitious and said it "involves a terrific amount of money."

He told reporters he would seek passage of his own bill, calling for a four-year, $2-billion program limited to classroom construction, and with half that amount to be paid by local school districts on a matching basis.

At that time in 1947, Pawley was assistant secretary of state for American republic affairs.

In his testimony, Pawley pictured Braden not as a Communist but as a very ambitious man who "became involved in a program which appeared to be helpful to the Communist party in Latin America."

Lawmakers Stoned

JAFFNA, Ceylon (AP) — Five Parliament members were injured in a police charge on a stone-throwing crowd of 3,000 here Monday.

The crowd had been showing its sympathy for pickets obstructing entry to government offices in protest against the adoption of Simbela as this former British colony's official language.

The five MPs are members of the Federal party, a political grouping of Ceylon's Tamil-speaking minority.

Indiana Fails to Get Revenge Over Buckeyes

By HUGH FULLERTON Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer

Coach Fred Taylor has been saying it right along. Opponents have had more than a strong suspicion and now the general public is beginning to realize it. Jerry Lucas, fine a player as he is, isn't the entire Ohio State basketball team.

That seldom has been more evident than it has been in the last two games, when the No. 1 ranked Buckeyes survived a couple of cliff hangers to keep their record unblemished and virtually sew up their second straight Big Ten title.

A revenge-minded Indiana team managed to hold Lucas to 10 points—about 10 below his season average — Monday night as Hoosier fans chanted "We want blood." But Mel Nowell, one of the "other guys" that Taylor has repeatedly praised for consistent play, came through with 27 points and Ohio State won anyway, 73-69.

Last Saturday it was Larry Siegfried who contributed the all-important points in a narrow victory over an Iowa team that lost most of its leading players by ineligibility but still manages to hang in there.

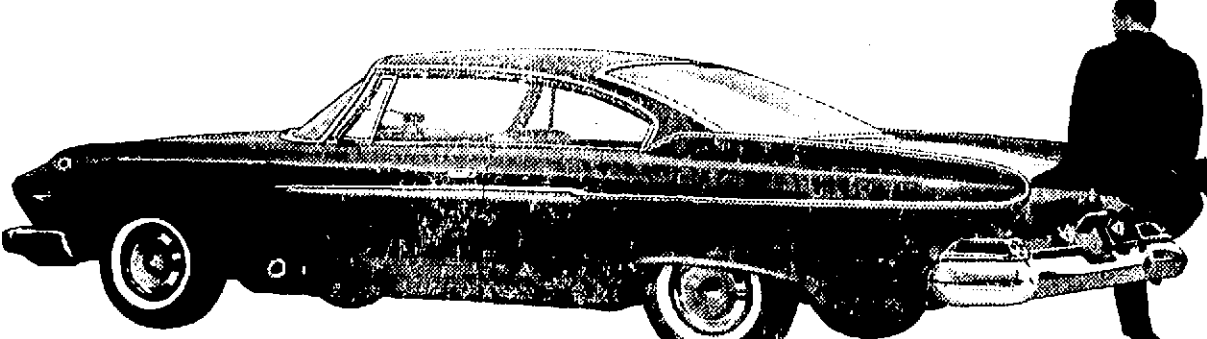

Iowa, due largely to the efforts of Don Nelson, the one surviving first stringer, turned back Michigan 50-46 and retained that almost invisible chance of overtaking the Buckeyes.

Elsewhere Duke's Blue Devils, who dropped to sixth in this week's Associated Press poll rankings (Iowa is fifth) moved into a tie with Wake Forest for second place in the Atlantic Coast Conference; Mississippi State stayed on top of the Southeastern and Florida continued its strong bid to represent the SEC in the NCAA tournament with fairly impressive victories.

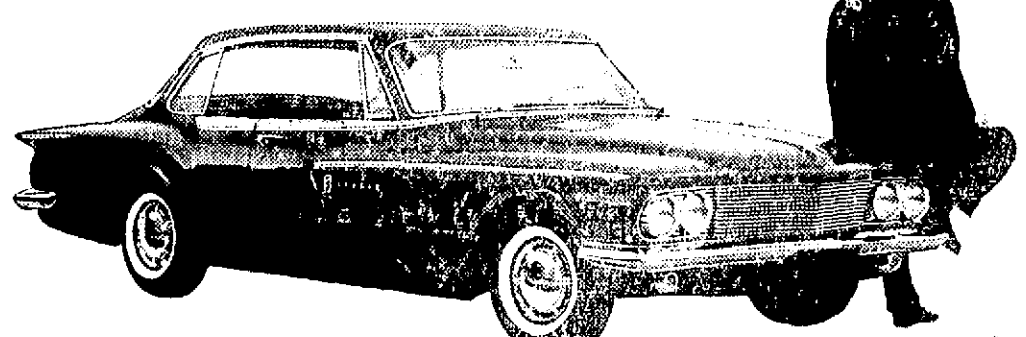

Duke, missing sophomore Art Heyman, who has been barred from the remaining conference games, conquered Virginia 77-66 in a lachrymose game. "The Blue Devils' big hope now is to earn the No. 1 seeding in the conference tournament.

Miss. State, which won't play in the NCAA tournament, ran its SEC record to 9-2 by whipping Georgia 99-77 with the aid of 34 points by Jerry Graves, Florida, winner over Mississippi State Saturday, moved ahead of Vanderbilt into second place at 8-3 by taking an 81-77 overtime decision from Mississippi. The Gators had to come from behind again to tie at 73-73 then pulled it out at the end of the extra period when Cliff Layk sank two free throws and a field goal in the closing seconds.

Open Letter

To Whom It May Concern:

Have you ever set out a tree? You may do so and name the tree for yourself or others. This offers you an opportunity to help a worthy cause.

Will you come out and plant a tree Tuesday, Feb. 21 through Thursday, Feb. 23 from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. at the City Park in Hope Ark.

Sincerely, C. B. Smith

Calendar of Events

The choir of Bethel AME Church will meet for rehearsal in the home of Mrs. E. L. Green tonight at 7:30.

The Yerger Tiger Yearbook has been sent to press and will take about seven weeks.

This will be one of Yerger's best efforts in the production of a yearbook, and the staff is asking for your support. When you're called upon, place your order early. Miss Minor, advisor; Muriel Jamison, reporter.

The Friendship Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Essie Brantley Friday, Feb. 24 at 7:30 p.m. All members are asked to be present. Mrs. Daisy Muldrew is president.

The Southwest District Institute held at Rising Star Baptist Church Feb. 16-17 was very successful. Enrolled were Sunday School Dept. 17; BTU 19; Ministers and Deacons 7 and Usher Board 11. Messengers from Gordon, Prescott, Antoine, Emmet and Hope. Rev. F. R. Williams, president; Rev. S. L. Lloyd, dean.

President to Get Report of Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP) - Democratic congressional leaders report to President Kennedy today the prospects generally are good for passage of his legislative program.

Despite Republican opposition to some proposals, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana predicted Kennedy's measures will get speedy action in a Congress about ready to buckle down to work after relative inactivity during the new President's first month in office.

The Democratic leader called Senate committee chairmen to a meeting later in the day to map a program for "adequate and prompt consideration" of the Kennedy program by the Senate.

He noted that the Senate had passed on a voice vote Monday a bill to set up a United States travel service to attract foreign tourists to this country.

The bill would authorize the government to spend $5 million the first year on active travel promotion. The measure is aimed at reducing gold outflow. American tourists spent $1.2 billion more abroad last year than foreign tourists spent in the United States.

Congressional movement was developing on these major items:

1. Education-In the House, Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., gave a go-ahead signal to the federal aid to education program the President sent to Congress Monday.

House Education subcommittees planned simultaneous hearings, probably starting this week, on the school and college sections of the $5.7 billion dollar program.

Mansfield said the Senate will go right ahead with preliminary action on the education program. Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., said he hoped a Senate Labor subcommittee could start hearings next week on the proposal.

2. Emergency unemployment aid extension-The House Ways and Means Committee starts closed door sessions aimed at getting a bill in shape for house action late this week or early next. A compromise on the financing reportedly smoothed the way for agreement on benefit extension up to 13 weeks.

In the Senate, Mansfield bowed to the views of Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., that the Finance Committee Byrd heads should wait until the House acts before it even holds hearings on the proposal.

3. Aid for depressed areas-Mansfield said he expects to bring a bill for the aid of depressed areas before the Senate next week.

Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., said a Banking subcommittee he heads will wind up hearings on the measure with testimony next Tuesday from Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg and Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

O'Brian May Quit His TV Series

MUNICH, Germany (AP)-Actor Hugh O'Brian said today television may see the last of him as Wyatt Earp after his current contract runs out in 1962. After that, he'd like to try Broadway.

O'Brian, in Munich escorting beautiful Princess Soraya, also denied any romance with the former wife of the Shah of Iran.

"All that talk about a romance between Princess Soraya and me is nonsense," he said in an interview. "There is no romance. Soraya is a pretty young lady."

O'Brian, his foot still in a plaster cast after an ankle injury he suffered while skiing with Soraya in Kitzbuehel, Austria, said he would go to London by the weekend for a TV show.

Third Aussie Horse in Yonkers Race

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)-Yonkers Raceway Monday lined up a third horse from "down under" for its three-race, $165,000 International Pacing Series this spring.

The latest signed by raceway President Martin Tanenbaum on his tour of New Zealand and Australia is Apmat, a 7-year-old gelding rated as Australia's finest free-for-all pacer.

Apmat is owned by Mrs. Maurice Anderson of Granville, New South Wales. Previously Tanenbaum contracted to import two New Zealand pacers, False Step and Arania.

Scots Protest Missile Base

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP)-Two Scotsmen lay down in the hall of the U.S. consulate here Monday and wouldn't budge. They were there, they said, to protest the building of Polaris-armed submarines in the River Clyde.

Chief General Maxwell McQuinn told them protests should be addressed to British authorities but the men wouldn't get up so the cops were called and hauled them away.

WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO BABY JANE

By HENRY FARRELL
Chapter XXVI

Using her arms to support and guide herself, she swung out for a moment into space, rested her weight for one instant on her right leg, twisted about as best she could, and fell back into the chair. She landed with a jolt, sharply aware of the edge of the chair biting into her flank, but breathless with triumph.

She remained quite still for several minutes, becoming slowly aware of an ominous silence from downstairs. But then, there was a sound quite distinctly from below, and she leaned back with a sigh of relief. After a moment, taking a firm grip on the wheel, she turned around toward the window.

At the drapes, putting her hand to the center where they divided, she lifted the nearest, held it as far as possible away from her chair and, moving forward, let it fall behind.

The bright sunlight assailed her eyes painfully, and for a moment she was blinded. Blanche opened her eyes slowly giving them time to adjust. She pulled out the other drape and swung it behind to join the other. She sat for a moment listening to the stillness outside.

The sky, though incredibly blue, was dashed across here and there with wispy white clouds.

Reaching out to the clasp, Blanche opened the window and drew it back. The breeze hurried itself in upon her face, stirred her hair, then fell away into an abrupt and complete stillness.

Revived, Blanche stretched her hand out, grasped the grille and using her cane as a brace, pulled herself up. Straining forward, she peered down into the garden below. It was deserted.

It was possible that Mrs. Bates had made her first visit of the day already, which could mean a long and disastrous wait.

When at last a sound came, she recognized it instantly: even without seeing she was able to trace Mrs. Bates' progress as she opened one of the French doors, came out onto the lawn, took up the hose and turned on the water. Taking the note tremblingly from her pocket, she reached out to the grillwork and drew herself up.

Yes, she was there! Mrs. Bates, wearing her smock and her big floppy hat, had already started along the flower beds at the side of the lawn beneath the hedge. Blanche put down forcefully an impulse to cry out, fearful of what unknown horror might befall her if Jane should hear and come upstairs. She let go and dropped back into her chair; she needed to conserve her waning strength until the sound of water told her that Mrs. Bates was directly below.

Gradually the sound of the water came nearer, until she was certain Mrs. Bates had reached the corner nearest the window. She reached up to the grille.

Mrs. Bates was almost exactly where she had guessed. As the woman rounded the corner, Blanche strained anxiously forward, holding herself closely to the grille she tried to attract Mrs. Bates' attention by waving the sheet of paper between the bars. Mrs. Bates, however, her face totally hidden beneath the wide brim of her hat, remained concentrated on her chores. Again Blanche needed to restrain herself from crying out.

Mrs. Bates' next move brought her almost precisely into position beneath the window. More than ever, though, her face was hidden beneath the brim of her hat. Blanche pressed forward, totally unaware of the cold bite of the bars against her cheek. Reaching the note out as far as she could into the open, she released it.

Mrs. Bates, catching a flash of something white, looked down, saw the note and stooped to pick it up. As she did so she had an impression of a childish scrawl. She started to smooth it out in her hand, but then, hearing her name shouted from somewhere in the direction of the house, she turned, still holding it, and started in that direction.

"Out here, Harriett!" she called. As she approached the house, Harriett Palmer appeared on the walk and, waving something before her, hurried forward.

"Have you seen this?" Arriving at Mrs. Bates' side just as she straightened from turning off the water, Harriett held out the paper. Folding it quickly back to the second page, she pointed to a photograph in the upper left hand corner.

"Look at that!" Mrs. Bates stared at the picture. It was of a woman, a woman in middle years evidently, angular-faced and for the purpose of the picture stiffly smiling. A Canadian Leader Arrives in U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Canadian Prime Minister John Diefenbaker arrived today for a three-hour talk with President Kennedy on world affairs and relations between their two nations.

Diefenbaker flew from Ottawa for his luncheon date with the American chief executive and Secretary of State Dean Rusk. Canadian Foreign Secretary Howard Green accompanied the prime minister.

More Social Security Tax Is Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today proposed still another increase in Social Security taxes to provide more benefits in some cases and to extend coverage to additional workers.

The President sent to Congress legislation to make what he called needed improvements in the program.

The changes Kennedy proposed would require an increase of one-fourth of one per cent in Social Security taxes levied against both workers and employers.

Kennedy did not estimate the cost of the suggested tax increase. It would be in addition to another increase in the same amount.

Kennedy recently proposed another increase of the same amount to finance the new administration's plans for health insurance.

Kennedy proposed:

1. Increase from the present $33 a month to $43 the minimum benefit payable.
2. Reduce the age at which men are eligible for retired benefits from the current 65 to 62. The benefits for those who claim them before age 65 would be reduced.
3. Change the proportion of time which an insured person must work under Social Security to be eligible for retirement benefits. This would be liberalized to provide that workers put in one quarter of each year, or three months, in covered work for each four quarters.

pleasant-looking woman, actually, but by no means pretty. The reproduction, though, was a poor one and as far as Mrs. Bates could tell it might have been a picture of almost anyone.

(To Be Continued)

Agreement on Retirement Vanishes

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Chances for a compromise on the thorny Teacher Retirement issue evaporated today in a meeting between Gov. Orval E. Faubus and legislative leaders who oppose his 5 per cent retirement plan.

Both sides came out of the hour-long session prepared to battle out on the floor of the House the differences between the Faubus plan and an Arkansas Education Association plan which would set the state's retirement contribution at 9.72 per cent.

"We went over both plans and the situation is still the same," Faubus told newsmen after the meeting. "Nothing was arrived at."

The 9.72 side apparently rejected Faubus' offer to add a flat $600,000 per year to the 5 per cent state contribution proposed in his bill. The $600,000 offer was Faubus' compromise effort.

The Senate has passed its version of the AEA bill and it is now on the House calendar for action.

Montgomery County Rep. Ode Maddox, sponsor of a duplicate House bill, said he probably would try to get a vote on the Senate bill rather than work for passage of the House measure.

The House bill also is on the calendar but it could not be brought up for several days because it is not on Speaker John Bethell's priority list.

There would be little difficulty in calling the Senate bill for a vote Tuesday, which is the day for the House to dispose of Senate matters.

Faubus evolved his 5 per cent plan, under which teachers and the state would make matching contributions of 5 per cent of salary, after a joint legislative study committee had recommended that the state's share be pegged at 9.72 per cent. An actuary contended that 9.72 state contribution was needed to make the plan sound.

Faubus contends that if the state retirement contribution is set at 5 per cent the teachers can have the money that would be saved immediately in salaries.

The AEA says teachers have indicated they would prefer a sound retirement program to more money at this time.

Perry County Rep. Paul Van Dalsem, a floor leader for the Faubus side, estimated last week that each teacher could receive

Spa Firm Accused of Being Unfair

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board today upheld a trial examiner in his finding that Local 400, International Flood Carriers, Building and Construction Laborers Union, had engaged in unfair labor practices during a 1958 job at Hot Springs, Ark.

The NLRB affirmed examiner Eugene E. Dixon's ruling that the union return to workers on an Oaklawn Park project initiation fees it had collected under what Dixon said was an unlawful hiring arrangement with the contractor, Dickmann - Pickens - Bond Construction Co.

The local was specifically ordered to "make whole" Orce Jefferson for any loss of earnings he may have suffered because of discrimination against him.

Tension Is Mounting in N. Rhodesia

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia (AP)—Tension is mounting in Northern Rhodesia after the failure of the London negotiations to reform the British African territory's constitution.

The ruling white minority is increasingly nervous as the black majority awaits the return from London of its leaders, Kenneth Kaunda and Harry Nkumbula.

Their return might set off violence, especially after their bitter complaints in London that they suspected that Sir Roy Welensky, prime minister of the federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland, thwarted the African hopes of getting greater voting rights and eventual majority rule.

Thousands of whites are packing to leave for South Africa and Australia, fearing political upheaval and violence similar to that in the neighboring Congo.

The London conference broke down Friday after leaders of the white minority refused to agree to demands of the black majority for a majority in the new Legislative Council. Kaunda charged that the British government had a 220 pay increase under the 5 per cent plan.

Faubus' bill was introduced in the House Friday and now is in committee.

Both plans would permit teachers to vote themselves into the federal Social Security program. This would be in addition to the state retirement plan.

President Ends Month in Office

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

MIDDLEBURG, Va. (AP)—President Kennedy wound up today in the muddy, thawing Virginia countryside the first month of an administration that has swerved sharply from the domestic path of the old one.

In the handling of foreign affairs, the break with policies of the Eisenhower administration has been less pronounced. Yet Kennedy definitely has set out on a challenging course to court Asia, Africa and Latin America and bring them more solidly to the side of the West.

It was just a month ago, in a betrayed the blacks and that Welensky, although his United Federal party boycotted the talks, played a major role behind the scenes.

national capital floundering under a massive snowfall, that Kennedy was inaugurated president. Today, the chief executive was closing out his first month in office in the seclusion of Glen Ora, the 400-acre estate he has rented in the heart of the Virginia fox and horse country. He planned to return to the White House before noon.

Kennedy sends to Congress today an aid to education bill. His idea is that the federal government should provide financial help both for classroom construction and salary payments to teachers. The matter is a departure from an Eisenhower policy that frowned on assistance with salaries.

But Kennedy since the start of his administration has been departing from the course his predecessor preferred. This has shown up, as campaign pledges foreshadowed, in his programs to combat need, unemployment and slumping business. It turns up in his plan to provide medical care for the aged through the Social Security system.

The change is apparent in the Kennedy cancellation of an Eisenhower administration restriction on troops having their families with them overseas. It is evident too, in the order Kennedy issued within his first 24 hours on the job for distribution of more food to the needy hungry Americans.

In the realm of military might the new President quickly decreed a strengthening of the missile Polaris submarine and air programs.

All in all, Kennedy has put on a display of energy and action in the White House that hasn't been paralleled for many a day. Along with this, he has made a definite, distinct imprint on social life in Washington and Middleburg.

Grid Giants and Vikings Swap

Officers Will Try to Avert Congo Clash

HOPEVILLE, the Congo — Lt. Gen. Sean MacKeown met Maj. Gen. Joseph Mobutu Tuesday for negotiations at averting a major clash between Congo national and Lumumba troops.

Jeshwar Dayal, Indian chief of the U. N. Congo mission, said the U. N. military forces, will see Mobutu at or near Kasa.

mba is the Congo River town where Mobutu, the strong man of the Congo, said Joseph Kasavubu's resignation, has about 1,200 soldiers for an invasion of Oriental Province, which is held by forces of slain ex - Premier Lumumba.

We are trying to prevent civil war by means of negotiation," Dayal told a news conference.

N. sources reported new outbreaks of violence against whites in Kivu Province, south of Oriental Province, said Europeans have been arrested and beaten, but

Child Suffers Skull Fracture

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A 2-year-old boy suffered a fractured skull after being dropped by his mother from the second-story ledge of a blazing wooden apartment house early today.

"The neighbors yelled for me to drop him and they would catch him. I dropped him but they didn't catch him," sobbed Mrs. James White at a hospital where she was taken for shock and minor bruises.

Her son, James White Jr., was reported in critical condition. The mother was rescued by firemen. Fourteen other occupants of the apartment house escaped as fire destroyed the structure.

gave no other details.

Anicet Kashamura, the Lumumba leader of Kivu Province who sought U. N. protection Sunday against arrest by his rivals, later changed his mind, a U. N. spokesman said.

Apparently Kashamura has decided to stay in circulation and take his chance in the power struggle now raging between top lieutenants of Lumumba.

Quotations in Kennedy Message

Kennedy-Highlights

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here are key quotations from President Kennedy's message to Congress today on education:

"The human mind is our fundamental resource."

"Education must remain a matter of state and local control, and higher education a matter of individual choice."

"We cannot obtain more and better teachers—and our children should have the best—unless steps are taken to increase teachers' salaries."

"A total of 600,000 classrooms must be constructed during the next 10 years."

"In accordance with the clear prohibition of the Constitution, no elementary or secondary school funds are allocated for constructing church schools or paying

Rules Out Second Mental Test

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Circuit Judge P. E. Dobbs today overruled a motion for another mental examination for Mrs. Carrie Talley, who is scheduled to go on trial Thursday morning on a charge of first degree murder.

Nathan Schoenfeld, attorney for Mrs. Talley, said he would take the matter to the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Mrs. Talley is accused in the fatal shooting last year of her teenage granddaughter, Carolyn Talley.

Mrs. Talley says the shooting was accidental. She has been given a mental examination at State Hospital and declared sane.

The defense today submitted letters from two private physicians saying that Mrs. Talley is sane and unable to stand trial.

church school teachers' salaries."

"We must assure ourselves that every talented young person who has the ability to pursue a program of higher education will be able to do so if he chooses, regardless of his financial means."

JFK Doing a Unique Job Before Public

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy may someday get political pneumonia from over-exposure in public. But not now. Meanwhile, he is doing a unique job of public relations in the White House.

A president's popularity is always at a high mark in his first few months. So any danger that Kennedy will wear out his welcome must come later.

What is unique is that he is trying to establish as much personal contact as possible with the people on TV, before news cameras and in public statements. No matter what his purpose, he is also providing an education in the presidency.

Last week, for instance, TV showed him in his office conferring with his budget bureau aides and talking on the phone during the Congo crisis with Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson at the United Nations.

Sunday the New York Times' magazine section had four pages of pictures of Kennedy at work in the White House with his assistants, advisers and department heads.

He already has had four televised news conferences, three of them live.

There was no TV in President Roosevelt's time. He couldn't get around much because of his confinement to a wheel chair. His only direct contact with the masses was as a voice over the radio.

Thus he had to depend mostly on the magic of his voice to create a sense of himself. His news conferences, which he used for all they were worth to get his ideas across, appeared only in print.

President Truman completely lacked a dramatic sense. He, too, had to depend on news conferences and almost entirely on radio to reach the public directly.

President Eisenhower had TV, which he used from time to time to make statements or explanations. Otherwise, his public appearances were mostly on journeys or on TV news conferences shown hours after they occurred.

Any sight of Eisenhower in the White House was usually formal. Kennedy's attempts to make the country conscious of him as an individual and as a president parallels in a way the public appearance technique he used when he represented Massachusetts in Congress.

When he ran for the House he used neighborhood receptions to meet a lot of people personally at one time. He did the same on a statewide scale when he ran for the Senate.

For some years before he sought the presidency he was forever moving around to meet people, individually or in groups, to establish personal contact and build an image of himself as a man for the White House.

He is not running for anything now. But he is trying to establish himself clearly as a leader, particularly when dealing with Congress. If he can line up wide public support, his task with Congress will be easy.

In addition, his activity gives a sense of movement, which is important for him to get across to the vast and slow-moving government bureaucracy.

Kennedy is said to have been greatly impressed by Richard E. Neustadt's acute book, "Presidential Power." He has brought the Columbia professor into his camp as an advisor on government.

Neustadt went into great detail on a president's public relations and their importance in doing his job. He said: "If he would be effective as a guardian of public standing he must be effective as a teacher to the public."

Sheriff Shoots Self Accidentally

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Sheriff Duffie Searcy accidentally shot himself in the middle finger of the left hand in his office today.

He was taken to a hospital, where attendants said he had not lost any of the finger.

Searcy was demonstrating the faulty mechanism of an automatic pistol. The weapon went off, discharging two bullets. One struck Searcy's finger.

Wants More Foreign Visitors to U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today passed an administration-supported bill to authorize a major effort to persuade more foreign tourists to visit the United States.

The measure, which would set up a top-level U.S. travel service under an assistant secretary of commerce, was approved by voice vote and sent to the House.

Its leading sponsor, Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., urged its passage as one answer to the outflow of dollars which has been cutting steadily into U.S. gold reserves.

Kitty Hawk Set for First Sea Trial

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Workmen swarmed over the decks and through the holds of the supercarrier Kitty Hawk today preparing her for her first sea trial.

The 60,000-ton aircraft carrier is to leave its berth at the New York Shipbuilding Corp. yards Tuesday for a 30-mile trip down the Delaware River to start a four-day builders' test of her engines and operating equipment.

The $230-million vessel will be the largest at sea—1,047 feet long, 232 feet wide and with a mast towering the equivalent of 25 stories above the keel.

The Delaware will be cleared of all shipping for eight hours so the craft will have the room it needs.

The Kitty Hawk will be the first Navy fighting vessel without conventional mounted guns. It will use Torrier surface-to-air guided missiles for protection.

The Kitty Hawk when ready for duty, will carry 108 jet and propeller craft.

When 1,800 employees of New York Shipbuilding, who will test her, return the Kitty Hawk to its berth Friday, she will undergo further outfitting, then be taken

Canadian Envoy Gets Approval

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate confirmed today President Kennedy's nomination of Livingston T. Merchant, foreign service career officer, as ambassador to Canada.

It also gave voice vote approval to Kennedy's nominations of three assistant secretaries of state — Brooks Hays of Arkansas for congressional relations, Harlan Cleveland of Syracuse, N.Y., for international organization affairs and Nebraska William J. Crockett for administration.

Army Aids Named by President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today nominated two assistant secretaries of the Army.

He picked Richard S. Morse, 49, Bingham, Mass., to handle Army research and development and William P. Schaub to be in charge of defense management. Both are subject to Senate confirmation.

Morse now is director of research and development for the Army. Schaub is chief of the Budget Bureau's military division.

Businesses Spend Much for Foilage

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Grandmother's house plants have found a new home.

Around $30 million a year is spent by business firms for flowerers and foliage to soften the stark lines of modern buildings or to bring warmth to offices, banks, stores and even to data centers of electronic brains.

Sales for indoor beautification of public or working areas of commercial buildings have jumped 300 per cent since 1954, according to the National Clay Pot Manufacturers Association. Its members supply 150 million clay pots a year to some 12,000 commercial growers.

Retail sales to business have increased much faster than to home owners. This parallels the record boom in commercial and industrial construction in the last six years in such centers as New York, Chicago, Detroit, Dallas, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Pittsburgh and Miami.

The biggest sales growth of all in recent years has been for in-

Urges State Labor Committees

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg today urged the states to set up advisory committees on labor-management affairs similar to the national group recently created by President Kennedy.

Goldberg told a one-day meeting of state labor commissioners that the federal government has no desire to monopolize labor-management relations.

The meeting was called by Goldberg to discuss Kennedy's program to solve the current unemployment problem.

Broadway Has Russian Problem

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Critic

NEW YORK (AP)—Broadway is having its own Russian problem this season.

The Muscovite scene was explored for comic effect recently in "Julia, Jake and Uncle Joe." Undismayed by that setback, another team of laugh seekers now tries flipping back the pages of history for humor in "Once There Was a Russian."

This item, which trundled onto the Music Box stage Saturday night, is better than its predecessor, but still creates no Volga torrent of mirth.

Sam Spewack, veteran of many a White Way frolic, pens a parable of how John Paul Jones was galled by Catherine the Great and her sometimes minister, Prince Potemkin, in 1787 balling with Turkey.

The script tries for a lot of witty then-now parallels, with dubious results.

Involved as principals are Albert Salmi, as the naval hero; Francoise Rosay, an estimable lady of the French theater, as the empress; and Walter Matthau, the scheming politician. Each seems misplaced and abashed in the charade, nor are their efforts noticeably enhanced by the fourth featured performer, Julie Newmar.

Miss Newmar, a beauty of awesome proportions and somewhat smaller histrionic charm, portrays the No. 1 girl in Potemkin's Crimean seraglio.

The standout work in the company gathered under Gene Frankel's direction is that of Eric Christmas in a brief, delightful bit as a British admiral.

"Once There Was a Russian" recurrently promises to lift to comic heights, but most of the time remains earthbound.

Disabled Vets Pay County Taxes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Attorney Gen. Frank Holt, in an opinion to Greene County Judge Chester C. Shirley, ruled Monday that a 1953 statute exempting disabled veterans from state property taxes does not exempt them from municipal, court and school ad valorem taxes.

The ruling said disabled veterans do not have to pay state taxes on real or personal property.

The exemption no longer has any practical effect as the state has quit imposing a property tax.

terior use in such buildings. Softening the outside lines of modern architecture with plants got a big boost almost 30 years ago from the wide usage in Rockefeller Center in New York City.

Much later, plants showed up in volume in the reception rooms, executive offices, and secretarial areas of a long list of the nation's biggest corporations.

One big impetus for indoor planting came with the opening of the Fifth Avenue branch of Manufacturers Trust Co. of New York. Its glass facade revealed to the passer-by a lush interior display of flowers and foliage plants. Since then banks across the country have bought plants by the gross and new commercial buildings have followed the trend.

A New York specialist in large indoor plantings for business and industry, C. Kind & Co., holds that "most architects, decorators and builders are agreed that carefully selected and properly potted live plants are essential to add warmth to modern interiors."

Florists have pushed the spread of plants from home to office. Clay pot makers say potted plants made up one-fourth of all retail florist dollar sales in 1959 and one third in 1960.

But much of the growth in retail sales of plants in recent years has come from the mushrooming of roadside garden stores and self-service plant department in supermarkets and variety stores.

The Department of Commerce lists potted plants along with bulbs, vegetable and bedding plants as horticultural specialties. Its 1959 figures put the 10 states producing the most of these specialties in this order: California, Pennsylvania, Florida, Ohio, N. W. York, Illinois, New Jersey, Michigan, Massachusetts, Texas.

Recently built structures using plants to enhance interior beauty include Prudential Life Insurance buildings in Houston and Chicago and Union Carbide in New York.

Arkansans Ask Increase in Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arkansas' congressional delegation has asked Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to increase the size of the Arkansas State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee from three to five members.

Rep. E. C. Gathings said Monday the request is based on the fact that Arkansas is a diversified farming state and needs a five-member committee.

It is highly desirable, Gathings said, that each of the particular sections of the state should be represented on the state committee.

Freeman, Gathings said, has advised that he would give the matter full consideration and would confer with the delegation before reaching a decision.

Members of the state committee will be named by the Kennedy administration to replace members appointed under the Eisenhower administration.

Gathings said that Arkansas' democratic senators, John L. McClellan and J. William Fulbright, report they are "overwhelmed" with applications for membership on the committee.

Koreans Want More U. S. Pay

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—A brief scuffle was touched off near the U. S. Embassy Sunday when police diverted 3,000 parading South Koreans who work for the U. S. armed forces and want more pay.

About 200 paraders challenged the police orders. The demonstration leaders finally obeyed and moved the parade away from the embassy, which is closed on Sundays.

Reds Claim Nat'l Plane Downed

TOKYO (AP)—Peiping radio reported Tuesday that pro-Communist forces in Laos shot down a Chinese Nationalist plane over Laos Sunday morning. It said all six aboard were killed.

The broadcast, quoting the clandestine Pathet Lao radio, said "a U.S.-made military plane of the Chiang Kai-shek clique" was shot down at Ban Ou, northeast of Tha Boun.

South Urged to Be True Statesmen

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Hugh B. Patterson Jr., chairman of the board of the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association, Sunday urged that politicians help the South by being "true statesmen" in both the political and educational fields.

"The South over the past 30 years has not developed to its full potential," he said.

But he added that he believed there had been a change for the better in the use of the South's wealth of resources.

Patterson spoke at a meeting of the South Central Advisory Board of the Anti-Defamation League. Members from Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana attended.

Patterson, publisher of the Arkansas Gazette at Little Rock, is immediate past president of the SNPA.

Sidney Rosenbaum of Jackson, Miss., was elected chairman of the regional board. Phillip Back of Little Rock, Herbert Yellin of New Orleans and Arnold Turner

Listened to Dad, Youth Escapes Pipe

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Harry Stage, 7, who plunged 275 feet down a narrow pipe into a deep water well, is alive today because he knows how to mind his dad.

The brown-eyed youngster with tousled blond hair is recovering in Memorial Hospital from two broken legs, a fractured pelvis and possible internal injuries.

Harry was playing on a ranch 25 miles southwest of Phoenix Sunday while his dad, Ed, a driller, was talking to ranch owner Vebel Fabuon.

Climbing up on a platform, Harry jumped on a piece of plywood which concealed the pipe to an underground irrigation well.

Fabuon said, "The boy just vanished."

Harry plunged down the 16-inch pipe with 250 feet of water at the bottom. But there was one thing in his favor.

"That board helped compress air in the pipe," said Stage, "and this undoubtedly slowed his fall. But he couldn't tread water because of his broken legs and pelvis."

From the bottom of the pipe came Harry's voice, "Daddy, get me out of here."

"Don't worry, son, and don't be scared," replied his father. "We'll get you out. Just push against the sides of the pipe so you don't sink."

The dozen or so men now gathered at the scene heard Harry reply, "Okay, daddy, I will."

A lengthy cable was no help. It curled up about halfway down the pipe.

Then Stage decided he would try to slip down the pipe. No good, was too tight.

Recalling a block and tackle at a neighbor's ranch, Fabuon drove seven miles at high speed to get it. But his rope was gone.

Fabuon stripped the ranch of lariat and hastened back.

Tied together, the lariat came to more than 300 feet. The line was dropped into the pipe.

Eagerly, the boy called, "Daddy, I can hold on to it while you pull."

News Conference Out This Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will not hold a news conference this week, the White House announced today.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger noted that this Wednesday—the regular day for Kennedy news conferences—is George Washington's birthday and a legal holiday.

Blames U. S. for Emergence of Red China

NEW YORK (AP)—General of the Army Douglas MacArthur today blamed the failure of the United States to follow up its military advantage in Korea for the emergence of Communist China "as a mighty military colossus to threaten the future freedom of all men."

The prepared statement was read by Gen. Courtney Whitney, MacArthur's aide, at a "Soldier for Freedom" award luncheon.

The luncheon honored MacArthur and Philippine Ambassador Carlos P. Romulo, who received "Soldier for Freedom" plaques from the Morris Morgenstern Foundation.

MacArthur's statement said, in part: "... A great nation which voluntarily enters upon war must fight it through to victory or eventually suffer all of the consequences of defeat. We failed to me up."

But the father wasn't going to gamble.

"No," he shouted, "you put the loop under both your shoulders."

Struggling in the pipe, Harry got the loop under his arms.

Spelling each other, the men pulled on the rope, hauling the boy up slowly. They stopped at intervals to be sure the loop was holding.

Finally, Harry was out, put aboard a waiting ambulance and taken to the hospital.

Fabuon said, "He's the bravest and luckiest boy in Arizona."

Said his dad proudly, "He always did mind good."

Monday Is a Real Test of Character

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—How you meet Mondays is a real test of your character.

Nobody in the office has a hard time getting through Friday. It is the last day of the work week, and everybody is perched on cloud No. 9, twittering with joy as he waits for the clock to strike quitting time.

But your office Monday bird differs from the Friday bird. He knows the work week is just beginning, and the freedom of Friday seems a continent away. He tends to chirp a different tune.

Yet it takes different kinds of birds to make any aviary. Probably if you look around your office some of the following types of Monday morning birds will seem familiar:

The late-rising pub crawler—He flutters in on one wing with hollow eyes and disheveled plumage, hangs up his coat and hat, then follows that immutable principle and thereby established Red China as a mighty military colossus to threaten the future freedom of all men, when we had within our grasp the control of its ability to wage modern war for generations to come. Let us not make such a mistake again, lest we perish."

It was a difference of opinion between MacArthur and former President Harry Truman over the grand strategy for fighting the war in Korea that led Truman to relieve MacArthur from his Far Eastern commands.

MacArthur advocated bombing China and Manchuria and attacking the Chinese Red mainland with Chinese Nationalist troops. He also wanted a naval blockade of China.

Truman said if MacArthur's policy were followed "we would be running a very grave risk" of starting world war III.

The awards were presented MacArthur and Romulo at MacArthur's apartment in the Waldorf Towers. The luncheon, which MacArthur did not attend, followed.

Goalends on Girls Team

LONDON (AP)—George Armstrong, 16, has got himself the job that soccer players dream about—goalkeeper on an otherwise all-girl team.

Reason: Vivien Willis, George's 17-year-old girl friend.

She pointed out that the team had 10 girl players, but no goalkeeper. So George, reluctantly, agreed to play.

"Now that I've got over my shyness, I'm quite happy to be among the girls," George said after a trial match.

Must Have a Heart for Jap Fans

AP Movie-TV Writer

TOKYO (AP)—Things I've learned about Japanese movie tastes:

You gotta have heart. That's the secret of film success here. "The Alamo" is a big smash in Tokyo. "Spartacus" is a flop. Reason: the former has heart, the latter doesn't.

The hit of "The Alamo" was a puzzler to this visitor, since it has had rough going in the United States. Besides heart, it has three prime elements for Japanese fans: 1. Length; 2. John Wayne; 3. Unhappy ending.

Biggest sensation of Hollywood stars is Audrey Hepburn. You see hundreds of teen-age girls with the Hepburn hairdo. They often buy movie mags just so they can show their hairdressers how they want it done.

Another big factor for film success: music. Movies with haunting themes are big hits. Younger fans know Charlie Chaplin not because of his comedy but because of the "Limelight" theme.

Yet Hollywood musicals usually bomb. "Gigi" did no business, nor did "Can-Can." But "Daddy Long Legs" was a hit. Why? It had heart.

James Dean still lives in Japan. His pictures play the provinces and the movie magazines feature spreads on Dean.

The big Christian epics are not sure-fire in Japan. Sources here say a lot of Japanese were fed up with Christian teaching during the occupation. This could mean trouble for the upcoming "King of Kings" and "Greatest Story Ever Told."

Many Japanese teen-agers are favoring the French films, which are offering bright young performers. They are tired of middle-aged Hollywood stars. Only American newcomer to catch on here is Sandra Dee.

Movies about Japan usually flop. "Sayonara" did so, because audiences couldn't recognize it as Japanese.

"Mein Kampf," the documentary about Nazi horrors, has done big business in Tokyo. But so has "The Great Dictator," in which Chaplin took a comic view of the Hitler menace.

Westerns are still the most popular attractions. Brigitte Bardot never caught on in Japan. Nor are the Japanese wild for Monroe, Mansfield or other sex symbols.
